

WaterTile 22 and 54 nozzle bodyspray

The Kohler WaterTile is the latest innovation in luxury showering. It is a new system of bodyjets and showerheads that can be tiled into the shower wall or ceiling to create a unique and customised showering experience. Sitting nearly flush to the wall, the number, height and position of the jets can create a truly individual shower experience.

- Premium material construction for durability and reliability
- 22 or 54 nozzle spray configuration
- Polished chrome, Brushed chrome or Brushed nickel finishes
- 20° movement in all directions
- Low profile design compliments any décor
